ZyQuest VP Joe Rosenfield Earns AITP Member-of-the-Year Award

De Pere, WI – Joe Rosenfield, Vice President of ZyQuest, Inc., has earned the member-of-the-year award from the Northeastern Wisconsin Chapter of the Association of Information Technology Professionals (AITP). The award was presented last week at the association's final meeting before the summer break.

With chapters throughout the United States, AITP provides opportunities for Information Technology (IT) leadership and education through partnerships with industry, government, and academia. AITP offers its nearly 9,000 members quality IT-related education, information on relevant IT issues, and forums for networking with experienced peers and other IT professionals.

Rosenfield serves on the local AITP board as Program Director. In choosing him for the recognition, the awards committee credited the high quality of programs for the increased meeting attendance during the 2003-2004 program year.

Headquartered in De Pere WI, ZyQuest is a full-service information technology consulting company offering a broad range of IT services, including staff augmentation, project management and outsourcing, Internet solutions, and technical education. While Zyquest has focused on serving clients in the Green Bay-Fox Valley area during its nine years in operation, ZyQuest also provides IT services to customers both nationally and globally.
